

ASSEMBLYMAN JIM PATTERSON
23RD DISTRICT

AGRICULTURAL SCIENCES AWARDS

NOMINATIONS DEADLINE: APRIL 14, 2014

California State Assemblyman Jim Patterson is currently seeking nominations for the 23rd Assembly District's 2014 Student Agricultural Sciences Award.

Nominees should have made significant contributions and/or notable accomplishments within the agricultural science/ agricultural business/production agriculture field within their course of study.

Selected students will be recognized for their accomplishments at a ceremony on May 9th.

Along with your application please submit at least three letters of recommendation in support of the nominee.**

Nominees must be current students, 10-25 years old, residing in the 23rd Assembly District communities of Clovis, Fresno, Centerville, Minkler, Friant, Auberry, Prather, Tollhouse, Shaver Lake, Three Rivers, Squaw Valley and Woodlake.

Completed nomination forms and attachments can be mailed to:

Assemblyman Jim Patterson
6245 N. Fresno Street, Suite 106
Fresno, CA 93710

Or emailed to: alisha.gallon@asm.ca.gov

Questions may be directed to the email address above, or by calling 559-446-2029.

Nomination form

Nominee:

Name:

Home Address:

School:

Does the nominee reside in the 23rd Assembly District? ____Yes ____No

Phone:

Email:

1. List any agricultural sciences/farming organizations the nominee is involved in and describe any leadership activities/roles held within those organizations.
2. Describe specific achievements within the agricultural sciences community (ie awards received, community service projects completed).
3. Is there anything else the Selection Committee should consider?